State Senator Tim Skinner

Representing Senate District 38

Biography

State Senator

Tim Skinner

Representing Parke, Vermillion, Vigo and Warren Counties

Democrat - Senate District 38

Term expires: 2006

A dedicated public servant and educator, State Senator Tim Skinner proudly represents his community and state serving as a leading voice for Indiana's working families and children.

Elected to the State Senate in 2002, Skinner is a teacher of economics, government and geography at West Vigo High School in Terre Haute. Prior to joining the General Assembly, he served on the Vigo County Council.

Among his many legislative accomplishments, Skinner has fought to stop the spread of methamphetamine abuse, to lower property taxes and to better fund Indiana's public schools. In summer 2005, he participated in the Bowhay Institute for Legislative Leadership Development.

Skinner serves on the Senate's Health & Provider Services; Education & Career Development; and Tax & Fiscal Policy standing committees. He also serves as the ranking minority member on the Natural Resources Committee.

A graduate of Garfield High School, Skinner went on to earn both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Indiana State University. The senator and his wife reside in Terre Haute and have four adult children and a baby grandson.
